DCP Case No. 107102

On March 21, 2019, the Division of Consumer Protection (the "Division") filed a Renewed Motion to Convert Informal Hearing in the referenced matter (the "Motion"). The Respondents filed an Opposition memorandum on April 1, 2019 (the "Opposition") and the Division filed a Reply memorandum on April 9, 2019 (the "Reply")¹.

In the Opposition filed jointly by the Respondents, the Respondents have requested oral argument on the Motion. U.A.C. R151-4-304 provides that, if the presiding officer exercises his discretion to grant oral argument on a motion, such oral argument is to be held within 10 calendar days of the last day on which the party who made the motion could have replied to the opposing party's response to the motion.

Based on the request for oral argument of the Respondents and for good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that oral argument on the Motion will be heard on Tuesday, April 16, 2019, at 1:30 p.m. in Room 403 of the Heber M. Wells Building, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Owing to the short notice periods contained in the applicable rule, counsel for the parties may advise the presiding officer by email by noon on Friday, April 12, 2019, if they have an irreconcilable time conflict with the preferred Tuesday afternoon hearing time. In which case, the hearing may be held on Wednesday, April 17, 2019 at 10:00 a.m., if such change is further noticed by the presiding officer.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that all counsel who will participate in the oral argument will notify the presiding officer by email by noon on Friday, April 12, 2019 of their availability for the alternate April 17th time for the oral argument in order to facilitate the rescheduling of the time of the oral argument, as necessary.

Dated this 10th day of April, 2019.
