ORDER DESIGNATING A PRESIDING OFFICER FOR A LIMITED PURPOSE

Case No. CP-2019-005

DCP Case No. 107102

By an Order dated February 26, 2019, Bruce Dibb, a presiding officer in this matter, directed the Division of Consumer Protection to file a notice of agency action to initiate this adjudicative proceeding. U.C.A. Section 63G-4-201(2)(a) requires a presiding officer to sign the notice of agency action. In order to avoid compromising fairness in this proceeding, neither Bruce Dibb nor the undersigned Acting Director of the Division of Consumer Protection should be the presiding officer that reviews and signs the notice of agency action.

As set forth in U.C.A. Section 63G-4-103(h), a presiding officer may be designated to act in one phase of a proceeding, but need not continue to act as the presiding officer through all phases of a proceeding.

For good cause appearing, it is:

HEREBY ORDERED that Daniel Larsen, an employee of the Division of Consumer Protection and licensed attorney in the state of Utah, is designated as a presiding officer for the limited purpose of reviewing and signing the notice of agency action in this matter.

DATED March 4, 2019.
